

Memorial Day Weekend
British Encampment

Saturday, May 27th
10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Bring the family for a day of living history!

Primitive Hall will host an encampment of re-enactors depicting the soldiers of His Majesty's 40th Regiment of Foot. Experience the sights and sounds of an 18th century military camp as it would have appeared during the 1777 British campaign to capture Philadelphia.

Talk with the officers and men of this Company and learn about the rugged life of these soldiers during the American revolution - often cold, ragged, half-starved, and 3,000 miles from home.

Gain new insight into the struggle for Independence. Throughout the day you can witness demonstrations of the Drill, Cooking, Brush Wigwam, and Recreation of the British Soldier.

During these hours the Hall will be open to visitors for touring.

~ Events are free of charge ~

18th Century Pub Night

Saturday, May 27th
5:00 – 7:30 p.m.

Join the 40th Light Infantry Company for a festive Pub Night. Visit with officers as they relax inside the Hall. Taste ciders, grog and British ales and try your hand at card games played by British officers during the War for Independence.

Reservations not required; the event is open to 21 and older.

~ Admission: $25 ~

Charlie Zahm Concert
Sunday August 27th

Look for news about our 3rd annual summer outdoor concert. Bring a picnic and join us under the trees for great music from balladeer Charlie Zahm and fiddler Tad Marks.

Goodbye to Georgie

We are all deeply saddened by the death of Board member and dear friend Georgianna Hannum Stapleton, who passed away earlier this year. Georgie was a vivid presence at the Hall and throughout the community. We greatly miss her counsel and lively spirit.
